The Sackerson family tree has been traced back to about 1600. All information on the ancestors of Olof Zachrisson (Sackerson) was researched by a private geneologist, Dr. L. Hausler of Uppsala, Sweden. The information was taken from the parish registers of Blomskog, Värmland County and Värvik, Älvsborg County which are preserved in the National Archives of Sweden at Goteborg.

Nothing more can be done on the direct lines of Olof Zachrisson. In addition to researching the ancestors of Olof Zachrisson on his fathers side, Zachris Segolsson, we have also researched his ancestors on his mothers side, Dordij Andersdotter Segolsson. This makes the family research very complete and final. The records were not kept any farther back than I have mentioned in this research.

At this point, it is important to note that in each generation the surname is different. This is due to the patronymical naming system used in Sweden at this time. The children usually took the first name of their father for a surname, adding either "son" or "dotter" at the end depending on the sex of the child. The Sackerson name remained the same from generation to generation in this country, but in Sweden the name was as follows: Olsson - meaning "son of Olof", Zachrisson - meaning "son of Zacharius", Segolsson - meaning "son of Segol", Olsson (again) meaning "son of Olof", and Engebrachtsson meaning "son of Engebract". You will also note that the female children are Oldsdotter, Segolsdotter, etc., because they were the "daughters of Olof, Segol, etc". I think we can all agree that keeping the Sackerson surname from generation to generation is much easier to handle.

The parish registers for Blomskog, Varnland County were more complete than those for Varvik County. The church registers for Varvik are existing for the following years:

SACKERSON

Birth Registers - 1685-1692, 1707-1740, 1744-1974
Marriage Registers - 1707-1741, 1753-1974
Death Registers - 1707-1741, 1740-1974

Because of Birth and Marriage Registers missing between 1692-1707 and 1741-1753 respectfully, there might be a child or two born that was not recorded in the birth registers. We also might be missing some records of the marriages in certain families. What happened to these registers is a mystery. Perhaps they were lost in a fire, in moving or possibly through neglect.

The parish records show that at least Zachris Segolsson and Anders Segolsson were farmers and probably all their descendants were also farmers. We base this on the area of Blomskog and Varvik at this time being made up mostly of farm country. If the family were farmers, records show that they must have been quite prosperous. The Clerical Survey Records (a type of parish census) shows that the family of Olof Zachrisson also consisted of two maid servants, Kathrine Bryngelsdotter and Margreta Andersdotter and a farm laborer Lars Andersson. The fact that Lars Andersson was listed as a "farm laborer" also shows that the family were farmers. Lars and Margreta might have been brother and sister.

Axel Peterson (son of Ellen Sackerson Peterson) had the privelege of visiting the family homes in Sweden while working on his Doctrate in 1930. The following excerpt is an example of the type of home the family lived in in Sweden. It is taken from a letter Axel sent to Aunt Christine Sackerson Holmes in 1930 while returning from Sweden to the United States.

"I bought a map while in Stockholm that showed the land around Blomskog in detail and have marked the location of the various homes. The Sackerson home seems in good shape but has been rebuilt slightly. One of the big rooms has been changed to a sitting room and bedroom. The kitchen was rather large and about the same as it was originally. The old cook stove was in good shape and still being used, they had painted it a light blue."

Besides communicating with Dr. Hausler, I have also had the privilege of communicating with two cousins of ours presently living in Sweden. They are also direct descendants of Olof Zachrisson, their grandfather being Olof Olsson, brother of Zackris Olsson (Sackerson). Their names are Olof Arvid Olsson and Axel Gottfried Olsson. Olof Arvid lives at Lobbyn, 672 00 Arjang, Sweden and Axel Gottfried lives at Armquer Hansensgt 14, Leilighet 216, Oslo 4, Norway. Another cousin, Julius Andersson lives at the same address of Olof Arvid. These three cousins have supplied me with all the known information on the siblings of Zackris Olsson. You will find it contained in this report.

Also included with this new information is a photostat copy of the Sackerson family Coat of Arms which was developed by a Mrs. Nancy Halbert of Halbert's Research Company, Bath, Ohio. It is interesting to note that the information available indicates that in 1972 there were less than 99 households in the United States with the Sackerson name. My research shows that the Sackersons in this country are all related. Note she says less than 99 households - so the 20 or so we have in our family research might be the only ones in the United States.

The Sackerson family tree is now complete and consists of 12 generations dating from 1600 to 1974, over 370 years.

I. Engebract - this would be the paternal great-great grandfather of Olof Zachrisson. He was born about 1600 based on information we have on his son. The records were not kept any farther back at this time so we have no information on his birth, death, family, etc. We know of one son by the name of:

A. Oloff Engebrachtsson - he was born about 1652. He married Ingrid Andersdotter. She was born in 1659. They had two sons that we know of. Oloff was buried October 30, 1737 at the age of 85 and Ingrid was buried April 3, 1729. (Records taken from Varvik County) Their two sons are as follows:

1. Anders Olsson - was christened April 3, 1687. There is no definite birthdate given, but it probably was a few days before.
2. Segol Olsson - was born April 21, 1690 in Varvik. He was christened April 23, 1690. He married Anna Borjedotter on November 1, 1717. She was born in 1700, the daughter of Borje and Kierstin (see page 11A for information on siblings of Anna Borjesdotter). Segol and Anna had 10 children. Segol was buried January 4, 1739 at the age of 49. Anna died October 20, 1765 at Blomskog. Their 10 children are as follows:

- a. Oluf Segolsson - was born March 21, 1719 and was christened March 24, 1719.
- b. Anders Segolsson - was born December 18, 1721 and was christened December 21, 1721.

- e. Borie Segolsson - was born August 4, 1726 and was christened on August 7, 1726.
- f. Oluf Segolsson - was born July 4, 1729 and was christened on July 8, 1729.
- g. Ingrid Segolsdotter - was born March 22, 1731.
- h. Arna Segolsdotter - (twin) was born December 25, 1737 and was christened December 26, 1737. She died and was buried March 12, 1738.
- j. Zachris Segolsson - was born August 28, 1734 in Blomskog. He married Dordij Andersdotter. She was born January 21, 1744 in Varvik. (See page 12A-14A, MATERNAL ANCESTORS OF OLOF ZACHRISSON) Zachris was christened August 29, 1734. He grew up in Blomskog. Zachris and Dordij were married December 28, 1764 in Blomskog and had 10 children. Zachris died April 4, 1812 and was buried April 20, 1812 in Blomskog. Their children are as follows:

CHRISTINA SACKERSON

Christina Sackerson was the daughter of Sackerias and Christina Sackerson, and the granddaughter of Olaf Sackerson. She was born April 2, 1874 in Slemetgen, Sweden. She was the second youngest of the nine children. She moved to the U.S. November 18, 1887. Christina met Herman Holmes (no relation of William Holmes) and they were married November 16, 1898. Christina died in 1967 and Herman died while working on the Pennsylvania Turnpike. They were honored by the town of Crystal Falls on their 50th wedding anniversary on November 20, 1948.

Both Christine and Herman came to this country with their parents. Christine came in 1887 and Herman in 1882. Herman served as shariff of Iron River for 18 years. He then became one of the most succesful contractors in the country. Among his greatest accomplishments was the Pennsylvania Turnpike which he constructed in 1941 at a cost of 70 million dollars. He also completed a 3 million dollar railroad tunnel project.

Christine was a member of the Eastern Star. Herman was a 32nd degree Mason. The couple have one daughter;

I. Esther Holmes - Esther married Jay Cole. Jay worked with Herman on the Pennsylvania Turnpike Project. They had one son. He is;

A. Franklin Cole - Franklin never married. He died in 1965 of bone cancer. He had broken his leg and the bone never healed . He along with his father are buried in the family plot at Crystal Falls, Michigan.

The following information I typed from a newspaper article on the 50th Anniversary of Christine and Herman Holmes. The article was from the newspaper at Crystal Falls, Michigan. It reads as follows:

50TH ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED BY WIDELY-KNOWN COUPLE

CRYSTAL FALLS, Nov. 20, 1948 - - - Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holmes, of Crystal Falls, widely-known not only in Iron county but throughout the Upper Peninsula as well, on Tuesday observed the golden anniversary of their wedding. The couple received some 300 relatives and friends during the afternoon and evening at their residence, 616 Marquette Avenue.

Mrs. Holmes received wearing a black crepe dress, trimmed in silver, and a shoulder spray of orchids. In addition to the many persons who called in person at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Holmes received numerous congratulatory telegrams, telephone calls and cards.

A five-tier wedding cake, decorated with yellow roses and gold-colored leaves and illuminated by gold candles in crystal candelabra, was displayed on the lace-covered table from which the guests were served a buffet lunch.

Mrs. Holmes, the former Christine Sackerson, of Crystal Falls, and Herman Holmes, then of Iron River, were united in marriage November. 16, 1898. The Rev. Mr. Oleander, the pastor of First Lutheran in Sweden, performed the simple ritual at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes, Crystal Falls, the bride's sister and brother-in-law.

The bride, who was wedded while wearing a pale blue satin floor-length gown, covered with sheer white organdy, was attended by Mr. Holmes' sister, Anna, who is now Mrs. Frank Flancher, of Iron River, The best man was Martin Sackerson, the bride's brother.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Holmes came to this country with their parents from Sweden, Mrs. Holmes in 1886 and her husband in 1882. He attended school in Stambaugh while residing with his parents on a farm in Iron River. Mrs. Holmes is a graduate of Crystal Falls High School.

For two years after their marriage the couple lived in Iron River. He was elected sheriff of Iron county in 1900 and they moved to Crystal Falls, where they have since lived.

Mr. Holmes served four terms as sheriff, and then was in the lumbering and logging business until about 1918, when he began contracting. Since then he has become one of the most succesful contractors in the country.

Among his greatest accomplishments was the Pennsylvania Turnpike job, which he constructed in 1941. It called for building a highway extending from Harrisburg to Pittsburgh. The Turnpike, called the nation's greatest super-highway, connects the cities by piercing the Applachian mountains.

The Holmes, active members of First Luthern church, recently gave the lots at the corner of Fifth and Superior Avenue to the congregation for a new church. A few years ago they presented First Luthern with an electric organ

Mrs. Holmes, one of Crystal Falls most popular women, is a member of the Eastern Star and Ladies Aid. With her husband, she has contributed much to the betterment of this community. Last year the couple purchased a refrigerated oxygen tent for Municipal Hospital.

Mr. Holmes, a Rotarian and thirty-second degree Mason, has been a director of the First Nation Bank of Crystal Falls for many years.

The couple has one daughter, Mrs. A. Jay Cole, and one grandson, Franklin Cole, of Crystal Falls.

Among the out-of-town guests at the anniversary observance were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sackerson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flancher, Mrs. Augusta Asplund, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Mangels, of Iron River, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Carlson of Stambaugh.
